This committee will meet on an as-needed basis at the request of either party and at mutually agreed upon times to discuss any issues which either party wishes to raise relating to the Police Department. Neither party has an obligation to act upon the issues raised. In the event of an impasse the issue may be submitted to the grievance process at Step 3, Director of Public Service/Safety.

If the meeting occurs during regularly scheduled work time, committee members will be granted time off with pay when meeting jointly with management.

Article 11. Grievance Procedure

Section 11.1 Grievance Policy

The City of Jackson and the Union recognize that in the interest of effective personnel management, a procedure is necessary whereby employees can be assured of a prompt, impartial and fair processing of their grievances. Such procedure shall be available to all employees except it will not be available to those persons on original probation as new employees regarding termination. No reprisals of any kind shall be taken against any employee initiating or participating in the grievance procedure.

Section 11.2 Grievance Defined

A grievance is a claim based upon the interpretation, meaning, or violation of any of the provisions of this Agreement, or a claim arising as the result of disciplinary action. Any grievance shall contain specific reference to the provision(s) of the Agreement allegedly violated, or to the specific disciplinary action. It is not intended that the Grievance Procedure be used to effect changes in the sections of this Agreement.

Section 11.3 Disciplinary Action Defined

For purposes of this Agreement, disciplinary action is any reduction in pay or position, removal, suspension, or written reprimand. No Bargaining Unit member shall have any disciplinary action taken against him, including written reprimand, except for just cause.

Written reprimands shall not be appealable to binding arbitration. In cases of written reprimands, if a member disagrees, he may write a memorandum to the Chief explaining his position and why he disagrees with the written reprimand. If the Chief agrees with the members, he shall remove the written reprimand from the member's file. If the Chief does not agree with the member, he shall attach the member's memorandum to the written reprimand and keep both of them in the member's file.

Section 11.4 Qualifications

A grievance may be initiated by the Union or an aggrieved Bargaining Unit member. The Union will make every reasonable effort to see that grievances it initiates affect more than one member of the Bargaining Unit.

Section 11.5 Establishment of Grievance Representatives

The Union may designate not more than three (3) grievance representatives. The Bargaining Committee Chairman may be the Grievance Chairman. The parties shall provide each other with a list of designated representatives for each step of the Grievance Procedure.

Section 11.6 Duties of the Grievance Chairman

The authorized functions of the Chief Steward and a named alternate who shall serve as Union Steward in the absence or unavailability of the Chief Steward shall include the following:

- (1) Representing the member in investigating and processing grievances beginning at Step 2 of this procedure.
- (2) Replacing a grievance representative who is absent or unavailable.

- (3) General supervision and coordination of grievances in process on behalf of the Union, and of Grievance Representatives.
- (4) Act as a liaison between the City's representatives and the Union, on matters concerning grievances and this procedure.

The Chief Steward or Alternate Union Steward shall be released from his normal duties, upon approval of his supervisor, to participate in the aforementioned duties without loss of pay or benefits.

Such disapproval shall result in an automatic, equivalent extension of time limits within which a grievant must appeal his grievance or have it heard. The Steward shall be allowed reasonably necessary time during his scheduled working hours to perform the aforementioned duties with the approval of his supervisor and shall notify his supervisor twenty-four (24) hours in advance of such assignments.

Section 11.7 Grievance Procedure Steps

Step One. Immediate Supervisor

- (1) A member having an individual grievance will first attempt to resolve it informally with his immediate supervisor. Such attempts at informal resolution shall be made by the member-grievant within ten (10) calendar days following the events or circumstances giving rise to the grievance having occurred, or within ten (10) calendar days of when the events or circumstances became known to the member-grievant. Grievances brought to the attention of the supervisor (except as otherwise provided herein) beyond the ten (10) calendar day limit shall not be considered.
- (2) At this step, there is no requirement that the grievance be submitted or responded to in writing. A grievant representative may accompany the grievant should the latter request his attendance at the discussion with the immediate supervisor. If a supervisor grants a grievance at the verbal levels, written acknowledgment of granting such grievance must be furnished.
- (3) If the member is not satisfied with the oral response from his immediate supervisor, which shall be given within ten (10) calendar days of the submission of the grievance, at this Step, he may pursue the formal steps which follow. Before a grievance and proposed solution is placed in writing pursuant to Step 2, such grievance shall be screened by the Steward(s) except that an individual may process his own grievance but the Union may attend the meetings and receive copies of any decisions rendered.

Step Two. Chief of Police

- (1) Should the member-grievant not be satisfied with the answer in Step One, within ten (10) calendar days thereafter he may appeal the grievance to the Step Two by delivering a copy of the grievance form, containing the written responses of the prior Step and any other pertinent documents, to the office of the Chief of Police or his designee. The Chief shall date the form, accurately showing the date his office received the form.

- (2) Within ten (10) calendar days of his receipt of Grievance the Chief, or his designated representative for this purpose shall investigate the grievance, and shall schedule and conduct a meeting to discuss the grievance with the Steward. The Steward may bring with him to the meeting the member-grievant and appropriate grievance representatives. The Chief and the employee may bring any appropriate witnesses.
- (3) In the meeting called for at this Step, the Chief or his representatives designated for this purpose shall hear a full explanation of the grievance and the material facts relating thereto.
- (4) Within ten (10) calendar days of the meeting in this Step the Chief shall submit to the Steward and the employee his written response to the grievance.

Step Three. Director of Public Service/Safety

- (1) Should the member grievant not be satisfied with the answer in Step Two, within ten (10) calendar days thereafter he may appeal the grievance to the Step Three by delivering a copy of the grievance form, containing the written responses at the prior Steps and any other pertinent documents, to the office of the Director of Public Service/Safety. The Director of Public Service/Safety shall date the form accurately showing the date his office received the form.
- (2) Within ten (10) calendar days of his receipt of the grievance form, the Director of Public Service/Safety shall investigate the grievance, and shall schedule and conduct a meeting to discuss the grievance with the Steward or individual processing his own grievance. The Grievance Chairman and the member-grievant may bring with him to the meeting the appropriate grievance representatives of the Steward. The Director of Public Service/Safety may bring any appropriate witnesses.
- (3) In the meeting called for at this Step, the Director of Public Service/Safety shall hear a full explanation of the grievance and the material facts relating thereto.
- (4) Within ten (10) calendar days of the meeting at this Step, the Director of Public Service/Safety shall submit to the grievant, or in his absence, the Steward his written response to the grievance.

Step Four. Arbitration

- (1) If the member-grievant is not satisfied with the answer in Step Three, within twenty-one (21) calendar days thereafter the Union may appeal to arbitration by serving a notice of intent on the Employer.

- (2) Within ten (10) days notice of intent to file under the grievance arbitration procedure, the Employer and the Union shall by joint letter, solicit nominations of five (5) names of arbitrators to hear the case (from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service). The Employer and the Labor Council shall select one (1) person to serve as the arbitrator. A date for arbitration shall be set as soon as possible in accordance with the wishes of the Employer, the Union and the availability of the Arbitrator. Nothing in this paragraph shall prohibit the Employer and the Union from mutually agreeing on an arbitrator without requesting a panel of arbitrators.
- (3) The parties may be represented by their representatives or legal counsel. Any witnesses that are necessary may attend the arbitrator's hearing. The arbitrator shall reduce his award to writing and state his reasons for reaching the decision. All decisions of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon all parties participating. The fees and expenses of the arbitrator and the cost of hearing room, if any, shall be borne by the losing party. However, upon application of both parties, the arbitrator may determine that a proportioned distribution of fees and expenses is appropriate. Neither party shall be responsible for any of the expenses incurred by the other party.

Section 11.8 Time Off For Presenting Grievances

A member and his Steward shall be allowed time off from regular duties with pay for attendance at scheduled meetings under the grievance procedure with prior approval of their respective supervisors. Stewards shall be allowed adequate time, as approved by the supervisor, off the job with pay to conduct a proper investigation of each grievance. Such approval will not be unreasonably withheld.

Grievants and Stewards shall not receive overtime pay to engage in grievance activities provided herein.

Section 11.9 Time Limits

The parties may mutually agree at any time to skip steps or extend the time limits. A grievance may be submitted to the level from which it originates. Where time limits are not met in the grievance procedure, a decision in the grievance shall be presumed to be rendered against the person not meeting the time limit requirements and the grievance shall be granted in full to the party that has met the time limits.

Section 11.10 Representatives in Meetings

In each Step of the grievance procedure outlined in this Article, certain specific representatives are given approval to attend the meeting therein prescribed. It is expected that, in the usual grievance, these will be the only representatives in attendance at such meetings. However, it is understood by the parties that, in the interest of resolving grievances at the earliest possible step of the grievance procedure it may be beneficial that the other persons not specifically designated be in attendance. Therefore, it is intended that either party may bring in additional representatives to any meeting in the grievance procedure, but only upon advance mutual agreement among the parties specifically designated to attend such additional representatives or representatives has input which may be beneficial in attempting to bring resolution to the grievance.

Section 11.11 Grievance Form

The Union will supply the grievance form and it will be made available to the grievance representatives by the Union. The grievance form shall contain space for each party required to initiate action or to respond, to indicate the time limits for action, response or decision. All entries on the form shall be dated.

Article 12. Investigation and Discipline Procedure

Section 12.1 Internal Review Procedures

- (1) A Bargaining Unit member, who is to be questioned as a suspect in any investigation where criminal charges may result, shall be advised of his constitutional rights in accordance with the law.
- (2) Before a Bargaining Unit member may be charged with insubordination or like offense for refusing to answer questions or participate in an investigation, he shall be advised that such conduct, if continued, may be the basis for such a charge. If a member desires, he shall be given a reasonable opportunity to consult with an attorney or Union representative before being required to answer questions.
- (3) When a Bargaining Unit member suspected of a violation is being interviewed, such interview shall be recorded at the request of either party by the requesting party. No recording of interviews or interrogations shall be made without the knowledge of the Bargaining Unit member.
- (4) The Employer shall not require one employee to investigate another employee in the same Bargaining Unit.
- (5) If any of the procedures of these Articles are violated, such violations shall be subject to the Grievance Procedure.
- (6) An anonymous complaint shall not be, in and of itself, the basis for any action against any employee. The Director of Public Service/Safety, the Chief, or the Assistant Chief may, however, investigate the complaint and, if corroborated by written witness statements, may become the accusing party and pursue discipline under the terms of this Agreement.
- (7) Any member who is charged with violating the department rules and regulations will be provided access to transcripts, records, written statements, and tapes pertinent to the case at the same time he received notification in writing of intended discipline. The information shall be provided within a reasonable time to allow the member and/or the Union to conduct an independent investigation in the matter. All members of the department shall be obligated to co-operate in the investigation and shall not be subjected to administrative pressures not to co-operate in the investigation.

- (8) At the request of either party, interviews, or portions thereof, with a member conducted during the course of any inquiry will be taped (audio). Tapes can be made by either party. The Bargaining Unit member and/or his legal counsel or Union representative will be afforded the opportunity, upon written request directly to the Employer, to listen to and make personal notes regarding a tape made of his interview subsequent to that interview.

If a transcript of the tape is made by the Employer, the member will be provided a copy of such transcript upon written request directly to the Employer.

- (9) The Employer will not use a polygraph machine or other mechanical or chemical means to investigate the truth of statements made by members without the written consent of the member.
- (10) Any complaints of violation of rules and regulations or of improper conduct that could not result in criminal charge shall be filed by the complainant within fourteen (14) days of the alleged occurrence. Any complaints filed after the fourteen (14) day time limit shall be considered unfounded and the complainant shall so be advised. The Employer shall have five (5) business days to start the internal investigation from the time the complaint is filed.

Notification to the Bargaining Unit member within fourteen (14) days from the filing of the complaint pursuant to (1) above that an investigation is being conducted shall be sufficient to comply with this Section. Any person seeking to file a complaint against a Bargaining Unit member shall be required to state the complaint in writing. The Employer shall inform the complainant that any complaint, which is filed without any corroborative evidence, filed as harassment, and after investigation is found to have been fabricated shall be forwarded to the Bargaining Unit member and the Union and the member shall have the right to seek appropriate legal remedies.

Section 12.2 Correction Action and Records

(1) Discipline for Cause

No Bargaining Unit member shall be reduced in pay or position, suspended, removed or reprimanded, or disciplined in any manner except for just cause.

In cases of written reprimands, if a member disagrees he may write a memorandum to the Chief explaining his position and why he disagrees with the written reprimand. If the Chief agrees with the members, he shall remove the written reprimand from the member's file. If the Chief does not agree with the member, he shall attach the member's memorandum to the written reprimand and keep both of them in the member's file.

The Employer agrees not to suspend an Employee without pay, demote, or discharge an Employee without first conducting a disciplinary conference in order to give the Employee an opportunity to offer an explanation of the alleged misconduct. Employees will be notified of a disciplinary conference seventy-two (72) hours in advance by written notice stating the nature of the charges and the date and time of the conference. The Employee may be accompanied by a Union representative if he/she chooses, or by a non-Union representative. At the disciplinary conference the Employer may choose to respond to the charges verbally or in writing, have his/her representative respond to the charges or waive the conference.

Requests for a continuance of the disciplinary conference will not be unreasonably denied. However, an Employee who is on paid administrative leave may not receive a continuance for more than an additional twenty-four (24) hours.

Disciplinary conferences, where practical, shall be conducted at hours reasonably related to the Employee's shift, such as during, immediately before or immediately after the shift.

(2) Departmental Hearing

No less than three (3) days prior to all disciplinary hearings, the member will receive from the Employer a written statement of charges and specifications. At the hearing, the charged Bargaining Unit member will be allowed to present his defense. A Bargaining Unit member who is charged may make written request to the Employer to review his personnel file in accordance with paragraph No. 6 hereof. Such request will be granted without unreasonable delay by the Employer in the case of a pending departmental hearing. A member who is charged, or his representative may make a written request for a continuance. Such request will be granted where practical. The length of such continuance shall be mutually agreed upon.

The Employer may put an Employee on paid administrative leave pending the hearing described in this Article.

Up to 24 hours prior to a disciplinary hearing a Bargaining Unit member may request a seventy-two (72) hour continuance or any other mutually agreed time.

The Employer will notify the affected member of any charges or of any decision reached as a result of a departmental hearing prior to any public statement. All cases of discipline shall be carried out in a private and business like manner.

(3) Actions of Record

At any time an inquiry concerning a Bargaining Unit member occurs wherein disciplinary action of record (reprimand of record, suspension, reduction, or removal) will or may result, the member will be notified when he is first questioned, that such result is possible.

(4) Progressive Action

The principles of progressive disciplinary action will be followed with respect to minor offenses. The progression, where appropriate, will include at least an oral reprimand, a written reprimand, and a short term and then long term suspension for the same or related minor offenses prior to dismissal.

(5) Duration of Records

All actions of record except oral reprimands, but including written reprimands or suspensions, may be maintained in each member's personnel file throughout his period of employment with the following exceptions:

Type of Discipline	Removal from Departmental Files
Written reprimand	fifteen (15) months after given
Suspension	eighteen (18) months after given

Disciplinary records so removed shall be given to the Bargaining Unit member. In any case in which a written reprimand, suspension, or dismissal is overturned on appeal or otherwise rendered invalid, all documents relating thereto will be removed from all departmental files and destroyed in the presence of the member. All records of disciplinary action removed from the files for any of the reasons outlined above shall not be considered in future disciplinary action or promotional considerations, and shall not be shared outside the Department.

(6) Review of Personnel Files

Every member shall be allowed to review his personnel file at any reasonable time upon written request to the Employer, and in the presence of the Employer or his designated representatives. Except for supervisory and administrative personnel with a legitimate need to know, and except for the Civil Service Commission and courts of competent jurisdiction which have subpoenaed them, a member's personnel file information will not be shared with anyone outside of the Department except name, place of employment, date of employment, job classification and pay range. Additional specific information may be given upon the advanced written approval by the member involved, but such approval shall be limited to the specifically requested and approved data, and to the specific requests made or member approval given. Any member may copy documents in his file.

(7) Inaccurate Documents

If, upon examining his personnel file, any Bargaining Unit member has reason to believe that there are inaccuracies in documents contained therein, he may write a memorandum to the Employer explaining the alleged inaccuracy.

If the Employer concurs with the member's contentions, he shall remove the faulty document and give said document to the employee. If he does not concur with the contentions of the member he will attach the written memorandum to the document in the file without comment.

(8) Discovery

Prior to any hearing for disciplinary action, discovery shall be granted to the charged Employee and his designated representative. Upon written request the appointing authority will permit the Employee to inspect and copy or photograph any of the following which are available to or within the possession, custody or control of the City and the existence of which is known or by the exercise of due diligence may become known to the Employer, as follows:

- A. Relevant written or recorded statements of the charged employee;
- B. Books, pages, documents, photographs, tangible objects, buildings or places, or copies of portions thereof, available to or within the possession, custody or control of the Employer, and which are material to the preparation of the charged Employee's defense, or are intended for use by the Employer as evidence at the hearing, or were obtained from or belonging to the Employee;
- C. Any results or reports of physical or mental examinations, and of scientific tests or experiments made in connection with the particular case, or copies thereof, available to or within the possession, control or custody of the Employer, the existence of which is known or by the exercise of the due diligence may become known to the Employer;
- D. Written list of names and addresses of all witnesses whom the Employer intends to call at the hearing; or
- E. All evidence known or which may become known to the Employer favorable to the Employee, material to either the truth of the allegations or punishment.

(9) Miscellaneous

The Employer shall either (a) adopt a policy of a pre disciplinary conference, or (b) shall provide for an Employee who is relieved of duty pending a disciplinary hearing to be entitled to full pay and benefits pending the hearing. The Employer agrees not to make any public releases of information regarding pending disciplinary action without the written consent of the employee.

(10) Shift Assignment

The Employer agrees that shift assignment shall not be used as a form of punishment.

Article 13. Work Rules and Informational Orders

The Employer agrees that existing work rule and division directives shall be reduced to writing and provided to all covered members. The Employer agrees that to the extent possible, new or revised work rules and division directives shall be provided to members two (2) weeks in advance of their implementation.

In the event that the Union (or their representatives) wishes to present the views of the Bargaining Units regarding a new or revised work rule or division directive to the Chief (or in his absence, his representative), they shall meet for this purpose prior to the implementation date of the rule or directive. No action is required by either party as a result of this meeting. All work rules or division directives must be applied and interpreted uniformly as to all members. Work rules or division directives cannot violate this contract. All such rules or their application are subject to the Grievance procedure.

Article 14. Seniority

Section 14.1 Definition of Seniority

Departmental

As used herein, the term departmental seniority shall refer to and be defined as the continuous length of service or employment, without a break in service for all Employees covered by this Agreement from the date of last hire.

Classification

As used herein, the term classification seniority shall refer to and be defined as the total accumulated length of service or employment for all Employees covered by this Agreement in a classification. Employees cannot accumulate dual classification seniority except while in the promotion probation period in a higher rank.

Any statutorily defined illegal use or possession of drugs by an employee, whether on or off duty, is prohibited. Department employees are prohibited from consuming alcohol at any time during or just prior to a beginning of the work period, except as necessary for the performance of their duties as authorized by the Chief of Police or his designee on a case-by-case basis.

Legal possession of alcohol in a private vehicle shall not constitute a violation of this policy.

An officer who is prescribed medication by a physician shall consult with the physician or pharmacist regarding the effects of the drug. If the drug precludes the officer from performing his normal job functions he shall bring this to the attention of his supervisor.

Failure of any police employee to comply with the intent or provisions of this policy are grounds for disciplinary action or other action determined appropriate by the Police Chief. Refusal by the Police employee to take a required test, i.e., a test that is ordered based upon reasonable suspicion or a random test selection as defined in this policy, will result in immediate relief from Police duties pending disposition of any administrative personnel action. A positive drug or alcohol test, or the refusal to take a test after an accident may affect the employee's eligibility to receive workers' compensation benefits under Chapters 4121 and 4123 of the Revised Code.

Section 18.2 Procedure

2. The employee may be transported to the designated testing facility by a supervisor.

the testing results. Refusal to submit to the testing provided under this policy shall be grounds for discipline.

11. If a drug confirmation test is positive, the employee may, upon written request, have the split sample re-tested by a DHHS-certified laboratory. This request shall be presented to the Police Chief or his/her designee within seventy-two (72) hours upon being notified of a positive result. In the event that the split sample test confirms the results of the first test, the City will proceed with the actions set forth in this policy and the employee shall be invoiced for the expense of the split sample re-test.

18.3 Substance Testing and Assistance

The City may impose disciplinary action upon the findings of a positive test result. However, the City agrees it will not discharge an employee who tests positive his/her first time. This limitation on discipline shall not limit the City in imposing discipline up to and including termination for gross misconduct which may be coincident with an employee's improper drug or alcohol use. If the employee has previously tested positive for the use of drugs or alcohol or has refused to participate, the employer has the right to impose disciplinary action, including termination.

Article 19. Training Classes

In the event an employee is forced to work a full shift, in addition to the one and one-half times the actual hourly rate of pay, the employee shall receive $.50 per hour for all hours worked. Hours worked means hours in excess of eight (8) hours or ten (10) hours in a given work day, as appropriate. If the Employee to whom the overtime is offered accepts that opportunity or denies it, the Employee's name shall go to the bottom of the list and the next time there is an overtime opportunity, it shall be offered first to the person whose name appears at the top of the list. This does not mean that overtime hours shall be equaled but they shall be offered on an equal basis. Court time shall not be considered in this equalization.

Section 20.4 Method for Call-outs

All overtime call-outs that are needed because of pre-approved leave shall be under the direction of the Chief or Assistant Chief. Officer(s) on such assignments shall be considered to be on duty. A separate extra duty/special duty roster shall be established for this Section. The opportunity for extra duty/special duty shall be offered to all full-time employees before the opportunity is offered to any part-time, reserve, auxiliary or special officers and shall be offered on an equal basis as described in Section 30.2 of this Article.

The Jackson School District may contract with the City of Jackson for ballgames and special events for the Jackson City School District. The canine used by the Jackson Police Department will be licensed in accordance with all state and local laws. The Employer will provide all food, equipment, insurance and veterinary services for the canine until termination of the program or until retirement of the canine. Upon retirement of the canine (based on a veterinarian stating that the canine can no longer perform its job duties), the canine officer will have the opportunity to assume ownership of the retired canine for one dollar ($1.00), and will assume all financial responsibility for the canine. The City reserves the right to terminate the program at any time.

The canine officer agrees to remain with the canine unit for a minimum of five (5) years after initially being assigned to the canine unit. Should the canine officer be unable to complete the five (5) year commitment, the employer, the employee, and the OLC will meet to resolve the situation. Should this meeting fail to resolve the problem, the employee may use the grievance process.

The canine officer will be responsible for the care and maintenance of the assigned canine. The canine will live with the officer inside his/her residence and may be kenneled while on the employee's property. The employer will be responsible for the cost of kenneling the canine if the canine officer is away from home for an extended period.

The canine officer shall be permitted six (6) hours per pay period for training of the canine. The officer may be permitted additional hours if approved by the Chief or his designee and will be paid as if he was on duty at the applicable rate of pay including overtime should the training exceed six (6) hours or the additional permitted hours. The canine officer will be paid for the training time in the same manner as if he was on duty during his regularly scheduled shift.

Due to the nature of this assignment, the canine officer agrees to be "on-call" with the understanding that his/her services may be requested at any time during the day or night. Should the canine officer not be available to respond to a request for service during his/her normal time off, he/she will not be subject to disciplinary action. Repeated failure to respond to requests for service during normal time off is grounds for reevaluation of the officer's assignment to the canine unit.

Once the officer works in the higher rank or position for the four (4) consecutive hour minimum, the officer shall be compensated at the higher rate of pay for every hour he worked in the higher rank or position during that shift. To receive pay under this Section the officer shall have the attendance log marked to indicate service in the senior position.
